

Miss Ruby Hill Tells How Cuticura Healed Tetter

"I had tetter on my face and hands. It came as a rash and then began to spread, and the skin was sore and red, and itched very badly. My hands hurt so that I could not put them in water, and I lost sleep at night."

"The trouble lasted about four or five weeks. I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and I sent for a free sample. I found it was so successful that I bought more and I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment when I was healed." (Signed) Miss Ruby Hill, Rock Bottom, W. Va.

Cuticura Soap daily, and Cuticura Ointment occasionally, prevent pimples or other eruptions. They are pleasant to use, as is also Cuticura Talcum, a fascinating fragrance for perfuming the skin.

The oldest active blacksmith in Michigan is still pounding his anvil in the town of Homer, thanks to my internal method for treating piles.

Mr. Jacob Lyon, Homer, Mich.

I wish that you could hear him tell of his many experiences with hemorrhoids, piles, etc., before he tried my method. Here is a letter just received from him:

Mr. E. R. Page, Marshall, Mich.
Dear Sir: I want you to know what your treatment has done for me. WHY SOCIETY WOMEN WASH THEIR OWN HAIR

They do, not because it is a fad, but because they wish to obtain the greatest possible hair beauty and be sure they are not using anything harmful. They have found that in washing the hair it is never wise to use a makeshift, but is always advisable to use a preparation made for shampooing only. Many of our friends say they get the best results from a simple home-made canthrox mixture. You can use this at a cost of about 2 cents a shampoo by getting some canthrox from your druggist and dissolving a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes enough shampoo liquid to apply to all the hair instead of just the top of the head, as with most preparations. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear in the rinsing water. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you.

DO YOU KNOW OF ANY MEMPHIS GIRLS WHO ARE PRETTIER THAN THESE? IF SO, SEND THEM IN

Miss Blanche Busby

Miss Allene Dickason

Here are just three of the prettiest girls in Memphis.

They are just three out of a collection of fair ones who are entered in the search for the prettiest girl in all Memphis.

Dozens of fair women have been entered in the competition for the Margaret Clark trophy to be awarded the prettiest girl in the city, and many friends and relatives of the pretty girls in Memphis are rallying to the support of their favorites by sending in photographs of girls they consider entitled to compete for the trophy and honor.

But two more days remain after today in which photographs may be submitted, as the contest closes Saturday, Nov. 15, at midnight. Photographs may be sent by mail or brought in to the Margaret Clark beauty contest editor, care of The News Scimitar, anytime before Saturday midnight. Each photograph submitted will be carefully preserved, and when the final decision is made by Miss Clark herself, these photographs will be returned to the sender.

The silver loving cup to be awarded the prettiest girl is now on display in Julius Goodman's jewelry store window, and Milroy's studio is making, free of all charge, sittings of those who would enter the competition.

From the photographs submitted, 12 of the prettiest will be chosen by a local committee, composed of G. R. Houck, Angelo Cortese and T. R. Robinson, and from these 12 Miss Clark, who is being featured this week at the Strand theater in her latest picture, "Luck in Pawn," will choose the winner. The winner will be announced next week.

CHURCHMEN HOSTS AT DINNER FOR THE LADIES

The men of St. Mary's cathedral were the hosts Wednesday night at an elaborate dinner given in honor of the women of the parish, as a testimonial of their appreciation of the work the women have done this year in the various activities of the church, and of a dinner which the guilds of the cathedral served last month for the men. The assembly hall in the crypt was decorated in the national colors, interspersed with the flags of the allies in honor of Armistice day. The dinner was not only prepared under the direction of the men's committee, but was served by the men, appraised in regulation white aprons, and explained by Bolton Smith and J. A. Evans. Albert S. Caldwell delivered the address of welcome, the guests and the "waiters" joined in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner," and Mrs. J. W. Bennett then presided.

Mrs. Bennett spoke of the work done by the seven guilds and other organizations of the women during the church year and said that she hoped these dinners, which serve to bring the men and women of the church together, will be held more frequently in the future.

The work of the various organizations was spoken of by Mrs. Dennis, of the church kindergarten, Mrs. William Oberg, of the church school, Miss Olive Finlay, of the senior class, Miss Elizabeth Smith, of the Girls' Friendly society, and Mrs. J. W. Bennett, of the church year. Vocal and musical selections were given by Mrs. Carly Anderson, Mr. A. G. Seaton, Mrs. Alida Black and Misses Dorothy Frieder, Katherine McKee and Miss Avelyn Mathews.

Dean Devall made the closing address and pronounced the benediction. A large number of men of the parish, who did not take part in the serving of the dinner, were privileged to attend to hear the addresses and the musical program.

Beside the decorations of flags which adorned all the phases the other decorations included a figure of Uncle Sam, surrounded by stands of flags and a dove of peace flying over the principal table.

Miss Overton Entertains.

A most enjoyable affair on Wednesday afternoon was the charmingly appointed luncheon given at the Country club by Miss Matilda Overton, of St. Louis, complimentary to Miss Harriet Hughes, Wilkie, of Liverpool, England.

Covers were laid for sixteen on a circular table, artistically decorated with ponies, chrysanthemums and other flowers. Among those who had the pleasure of enjoying Miss Overton's hospitality were: Miss Wilkie, Mrs. McKee, Van Vleet, Mrs. Sam Bennett, Miss Edna Arrington, Mrs. Bright Goodbar, Mrs. Charles R. Hanson, Mrs. Aaron Evans, Mrs. Curtis Dewey, Mrs. Howard Stovall, of Stovall, Miss Margaret Boyce, Miss Fieele Mary Phillips, Miss Anne Carter, Mrs. Hubert Reese, Mrs. Thomas Vinton and Miss Mary Robinson.

Miss Prothro Honored.

Miss Mary Prothro, whose marriage to Mr. Austin David Carey will be solemnized Wednesday evening, will be favored with a theater party on Friday evening, given by two of the guests, Mrs. Sam Carey and Richard Martin, at the Lyric, when the guests will have the pleasure of witnessing the popular play, "Bacchante."

On Saturday afternoon Miss Susan Wilson will compliment Miss Prothro with a tea at her home on Cary avenue, and Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown will entertain with a dancing party for the guests, members of her bridal party and friends.

Following the rehearsal on Monday evening the bridal party will be entertained with a buffet supper given by Miss Roberta Prothro at her home on York avenue.

Miss Mary Britt Burns will be the hostess on Tuesday afternoon at a beautifully planned bridge party for Miss Prothro.

Box Party at Lyric.

One of the largest box parties to be given for the performance of "Boonchikang" at the Lyric theater on Saturday afternoon will be that of Mrs. Gay C. Townsend.

Mrs. Townsend will entertain her guests with a tea at the Peabody hotel, following the play.

Compliments Bride-Elect.

Miss Mary Prothro, a pretty bride-to-be, will be favored with numerous parties preceding the wedding, one of which will be the luncheon given by Mrs. Elmer Lohel on Thursday afternoon at her home on East McLeone avenue.

Mrs. Lohel will use yellow and white chrysanthemums and a large arrangement of flowers on her table, and tiny individual bouquets will be placed on each of the round tables.

The charming bride-elect will be crowned in indoor divinity, with a trimmings of beaded Georgette and a becoming hat of the same shade, trimmed with a dragon fly blue plume.

Mrs. Lohel will wear a black satin gown with trimmings of lace and fringe.

The guest list is composed of the following: Miss Prothro, Mrs. Forrest Mott, Russell Peete, Harold Elin, Joe Tagg, Preston Louis, Brenda Adams and Mrs. Carey and Misses Mary Britt Burns, Susan Wilson and Blaire.

Parties for Miss Scott.

A series of lovely parties are being planned for Miss Geraldine Scott, whose marriage to Mr. Thomas H. Miller will be solemnized at Sacred Heart rectory on Nov. 21.

Among the first of the pre-nuptial affairs will be the box party given at the Grapemont theater on Friday afternoon by Miss Katherine Kelly, and on Monday evening Mrs. J. W. Bennett will entertain at dinner for the bride-elect.

Wednesday Mrs. Elmer Wainwright will be the hostess at a charmingly planned miscellaneous supper for the bride-elect, and Mrs. Walter Telford will compliment Miss Scott with a luncheon on Saturday, Nov. 23, and on Sunday, Nov. 24, the bride party and a few relatives will be the dinner guests of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Wainwright explained that the speakers of the occasion, following a brief remarks on "Service With a Big Letter."

Mrs. Darnell had selected the general subject, "Recent National Events As Told by Eye-Witnesses," which was discussed by four most able speakers.

Special interest for the club members centered in Mrs. E. J. Williamson's account of the launching of the "Chickasaw," which Flahly county, because of splendid work in the last Liberty loan campaign, had the pleasure of naming, and a double interest was given by the fact that the ship was christened by Miss Elizabeth Jordan, a pretty debutante of this season, with Mrs. Williamson as her official chaperon.

Mrs. Williamson explained that Miss Jordan had been chosen as sponsor, not only for her own qualifications, but also as a compliment to her father, Mr. E. L. Jordan, who was the only Memphis man who gave his undivided time to all five of the Liberty loan campaigns. Mrs. Williamson, who during the first campaign was president of the Nineteenth Century club, also worked in all five of the campaigns, and it was most fitting that she should serve as chaperon.

Mrs. Williamson told of the trip of the meeting with the government representatives and a party of Miss Jordan's friends from the East, who had joined them for the christening, and of the launching of the ship, which is part of the great merchant marine which is expected to be the salvation of American commerce.

The launching was witnessed, Mrs. Williamson said, by the largest gathering of people ever assembled in the city, and the ship was christened by Mrs. Williamson, who was accompanied by her husband and a large number of guests.

Mrs. Williamson described the launching itself and the christening of the vessel with real champagne, by Miss Jordan, to whom a huge bouquet of American Beauties had been presented, as the sponsor. She exhibited to the club members the silk net case which had covered the bottle, with the red, white
